Hair product Glop & Glam safe for kids

McClatchy-Tribune

Want to manage your child's messy mane but worried about exposing your tyke to the harsh chemicals in some hair products?

Glop & Glam is a hair care line specifically for style-sawy toddlers, children and young adults. The line includes styling products designed to achieve a number of different looks - all in kid-friendly fragrances such as banana and chocolate - as well as brightly colored hair extensions.

The products boast "natural nutrients and extracts" and don't contain parabens, which are often used as preservatives in cosmetics but have also been the subject of health concerns.

Most of the styling products cost $15.99; the extensions will set you back $3.99. Check out www.glopandglam.com to learn more or order.
